

2019 WABE ARTIST OF THE YEAR CALL TO ARTISTS

STEAMing Ahead

The Washington Association for Bilingual Education (WABE) is pleased to announce an open call to Washington/Oregon state-based artists. Bellevue will be the host city for WABE's 2019 Annual Conference. One artist's work will be chosen by a panel to be featured on WABE's conference program guide and other promotional outlets including the conference website (www.wabewa.org). The selected artist will receive a $500 award, free conference registration, vendor space to promote and sell her or his work, and recognition in conference materials.

Eligibility

Artist must be a resident of Washington/Oregon

Deadlines

Submissions due January 31, 2019
Notification by February 13, 2019
Final image due February 20, 2019

Guidelines

- JPGs of photographs, prints, 3D art, etc., are all welcome.
- The selected image will be used at approximately 8.5" x 5.5" (vertical or horizontal) and may be overlaid with text promoting the conference.
- Images may be cropped to fit the format of promotional materials.

Submission

- JPG: Final images must be at least 2550x1650 pixels (300 dpi at 8.5" x 11"). You may submit a low-resolution version of your work for consideration.
- Title of the piece and year it was created.
- Contact information (name, address, email, phone number)
- A brief statement about you and/or your work—whatever you want us to know!
- Work should represent WABE's 2019 theme, "STEAMing Ahead" and WABE's stand on multiculturalism and bilingual education from an artist's point of view. For more information on the theme, please visit wabewa.org/conference.

A statement of release or ownership of the piece must be submitted to WABE should it be selected. Only one submission per artist.

Please email all submissions to Alberto Granados and Kelly Moses
