Featured Speakers

Dr. Pedro Noguera
A dynamic speaker, Dr. Pedro A. Noguera is one of our most important voices for improving public education. Dr. Noguera’s work focuses on how schools are affected by social and economic conditions in local, regional and global contexts.

Dr. Margarita Calderón
Dr. Margarita Calderón is a Professor Emerita at Johns Hopkins University. She is a consultant for the U.S. Department of Justice and Office of Civil Rights. Her research focuses on effective schools and language, literacy development of English language learners, and teacher preparation.

Drs. Virginia Collier & Wayne Thomas
Professors Wayne Thomas and Virginia Collier are internationally known for their research on long-term school effectiveness for linguistically and culturally diverse students. Spotlighted by the national and international media, their award-winning national research studies have had a substantial impact on school policies throughout the world.
